

Seminar highlights thriving tactics

MORE than 100 local businesses have attended a seminar on how to prosper during the recession. Traders were given lessons in “thriving not surviving” during the meeting at Munstone House Hotel.

The seminar organised by Lloyds TSB, Kidwells Law and Thorne Widgery Accountants, heard how companies could overcome difficulties by listening to advisors. The group will hold further seminars later this year.

At the meeting were (from left) Michael Horne, from Kidwells Law, Paul Griffin, Kidwells Law, Simon Davies, Lloyds TSB Commercial, Mark Smith, Lloyds TSB Commercial and Andy Edwards from Thorne Widgery.
